

Teacher Appreciation Day is May 8th!

Next Tuesday do something special for your teacher or teachers to show how much you appreciate them.

Your appreciation does not have to cost any money. Make them a card or poster. Tell them something that you admire about them. Share with them a time they made you laugh or another fond memory that you have of a class project or lesson that you really liked.

