

Potential Topic Ideas for Communication in History

Important: This is a rough list of potential topics that could be used for this year's theme, Communication in History. You DO NOT have to use the topics below, they are only suggestions if you are having trouble thinking of topics to choose from. The National History Day committee will send out a larger list of potential topics after this year's contest is officially over. Please feel free to email me at any time if you have questions regarding the packet, primary vs. secondary sources, or potential topics.

- ★ Helen Keller
- ★ Martin Luther King Jr.
- ★ Mahatma Gandhi
- ★ American Sign Language
- ★ Navajo Code Talkers WWII
- ★ Merriam Webster
- ★ Fireside Chats
- ★ The Underground Railroad
- ★ Washington's Spies - The Revolutionary War
- ★ Radio Broadcasting
- ★ Radio and Presidential Elections
- ★ Television and Presidential Elections
- ★ Flight 93
- ★ Telegraph
- ★ Telephones
- ★ Photographic journalism during the Vietnam War
- ★ The '30s and its Music: Communicating The Opinion of the People
- ★ Communicating Women's Rights
- ★ African-American Slave Songs
- ★ Female Spies in Wars

Please note that I will be sending out a larger list of potential topics once it is released by the National History Day coordinators.

My email: miss.monahan@stmmparish.org