Weekly News from First Grade-Week of November 12, 2018

Dear First Grade Families,

I hope everyone had a nice weekend. From what your children described it sounded busy!

The class DoJo seems to be working. The airplanes are still up but we are not using them I just can't seem to take them down. Our weekly individual points will be 30 for the week. Some of the children are almost to their goal. Keep up the good work First Graders!

The Student Council is having their annual Thanksgiving Food Drive. First grade has been assigned to donate boxed stuffing. The dates for the drive are November 12-16, 2018. Please consider donating to those who are less fortunate.

Have a great week!

God Bless,

Mrs. Butts
