February News:

My art room is filled with talented young artists who never cease to surprise me!

They have made some lovely snowflakes as well as other Very cool projects. Some of these will be saved for the art show

In May. The classes are working with watercolor and tempera paints.

They are beginning to get the feel of how much paint to use and the proper amount of water. I hope to use clay for some of the classes as well as Different techniques in painting .

Having fun in art class,

Mrs. Hillman Art Teacher

Art has the role in education of helping children become like themselves instead of more like everyone else.

WELCOME TO THE ST. MARGARET MARY SCHOOL

Students will meet for library class once a week to choose a book.

Following the Diocesan Curriculum, students are taught key information for research and reading.

Parents may access the curriculum here:

Library classes are moving along smoothly. I usually have the classes working on different projects. Grades 2-6 are completing comprehension reading papers and diligently learning about dictionaries and reference books. We will work more on Dewey Decimal System this month.

Pre-K through 1 are participating in read aloud stories and choose their book for the week.

Book Fair is almost finished. The kids love to pick books!

Have a wonderful Month!

Mrs. Hillman
