The Sullivan Script

Week of May 28 – June 1, 2018

Thank you to everyone for your cards, kind words, thoughts, and prayers during this difficult time for my family. My Mom was an amazing person. She loved her family to the fullest and made us the center of her world. My own children were especially close to my Mom, they saw her practically every day and had a very special bond with her. We miss my Mom more than words can say, but we thank God for each day and moment that we had with her. Thank you again for keeping my family in your prayers.

This week was the last week for Pretzel orders. There will be no pretzels sold next week.

Philly Pretzels are available to purchase each week for $1.00. Money is due on Mondays and the pretzels will be delivered on Wednesdays.

A Peek At The Week:

*We will not be testing on any new skills from this point on, however we will continue to move forward with learning new skills in each subject area.

Religion: This week we will learn about preparing to receive Jesus. We will hear the story about how Jesus helped the Roman Soldier.

Language Arts: This week we will work on lesson 17 in our Journeys Reading Program. The story for lesson 17 is "Luke Goes to Bat" and the genre for this selection is realistic fiction. The focus skills for lesson 17 include the long -i sound spelled -i, -igh, -ie, and -y, subject verb agreement, and antonyms.

Math: This week we will continue to work on geometry. This week we will focus on problem solving and ordered pairs.

Science and Social Studies/Creative Writing: This week we will be working in our Scholastic News Magazines.

Spelling words lesson 16:
