-On Friday, Dec. 14, at 8:30 am, Room 3-1 has Mass. Please feel free to attend.

-The Christmas Pageant is Tuesday, Dec. 18, at Bishop McDevitt School. The children are to be there by 6:30pm dressed in Christmas clothes. It should be quite entertaining.

-On Wednesday, Dec. 19, the children in Room 3-1 will have a hotdog lunch provided by me. If they don't eat hotdogs, have them pack like usual. They can still have the drinks, chips, and dessert.

-There will be NO HOMEWORK the week of Dec. 17. Enjoy the break!!!

- This week and next the Journeys Reader will be used very little. Instead we will be enjoying VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS TALES. These are cute stories and many have lessons to teach us all. Next week we will be omitting our Religion Book. Instead, the children will be viewing some religious videos that contain Christmas stories that touch the heart.

-Along with St. Nicholas Day, Reconciliation, Mass, the Christmas Pageant, our Christmas stories/videos, Breakfast in Bethlehem, and our prayer service, we had/have many occasions to help us prepare for the TRUE MEANING of Christmas. Please ask the children about them so that they can share these special events with you as well.

-Parents, these days will fly by and before you know it, we will be celebrating Christmas. I hope and pray that you have a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS and a BLESSED NEW YEAR! THANK YOU for all that you do for the children and me!
